

Civil Law Entities*

Corporate Name/Date of Formation	Principal Operations/Oversight Responsibilities
The Roman Catholic Archbishop of Los Angeles, a California corporation sole (RCALAcorp). Founded in 1870	Holds civil law legal title to real estate and church structures and other houses and buildings related to parishes, cemeteries, general real estate holdings and some facilities and properties used for schools or other purposes; administers Archdiocesan wide activities and services, including financial and canonical matters, religious education and formation, Catholic schools, the Investment Pool, pensions and benefits, contracts and other legal temporal matters, all done principally through the ACC.
Archdiocese of Los Angeles Education & Welfare Corporation, a California nonprofit religious corporation (E&W). Established in 1953	Holds real estate of elementary schools and Archdiocesan high schools and certain properties now used by parishes; oversees state and federal school lunch and other government programs in schools; holds title to and oversees other education related assets.
St. John's Seminary in California, a nonprofit religious corporation. Established in 1940	Operates St. John's Seminary as an accredited institution to prepare candidates for ordination to the priesthood and to provide other theological degree and non-degree programs; provides in-service education; holds title to real property related to or located at the Seminary.
Catholic Charities of Los Angeles, Inc., a California nonprofit public benefit corporation. Established in 1937	Provides voluntary contractual and government funded social and human service programs throughout the Archdiocese without reference to religious affiliation of those served; holds title to or leases from third parties and E & W properties in Los Angeles, Ventura and Santa Barbara counties dedicated to Catholic Charities operations.
The Tidings, a California nonprofit religious corporation Established 1937	Publishes The Tidings, Vida Nueva and the Catholic Directory for the Archdiocese; holds equipment related to newspaper publications.
Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels, a California corporation sole. Successor by name change effective on March 7, 2003 to The Rosary Hour, Inc., formed on June 14, 1950	Operates the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels as a parish, as well as the related conference, parking and other facilities and the activities at the Cathedral location; holds title to real property and assets related to Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels.

Civil Law Entities*

Corporate Name/Date of Formation	Principal Operations/Oversight Responsibilities
The Cardinal McIntyre Fund for Charity, a California nonprofit public benefit corporation. Established in 1951	Coordinates and funds emergency charity such as food and temporary lodging for destitute families in the Archdiocese, principally through reimbursement funding provided to parishes; funding from donor contributions and earnings on donor designated funds.
Archdiocese of Los Angeles Risk Management Corporation, a California nonprofit religious corporation. Established in 2011	Coordinates risk management activities for the Archdiocese and may, as appropriate, become licensed for certain limited insurance activities in California.
Archdiocese of Los Angeles Insurance Company, a Montana nonprofit religious corporation Established in 2011	Serves as the licensed insurance company to provide, oversee and coordinate insurance programs for the Archdiocese.
Archdiocese of Los Angeles Funeral and Mortuary Services Corporation, a nonprofit religious corporation Established in 2017	Provides pre-need and at-need funeral and mortuary services, including pertinent insurance, to the faithful and related persons at Archdiocesan mortuaries.

* INACTIVE ENTITIES:

St. John's Seminary College, a California nonprofit religious corporation, that operated St. John's Seminary College until it was closed was dissolved in 2013.

The Catholic Charities Community Development Corporation, Inc., a California nonprofit public benefit corporation is inactive except for ownership of single parcel of real estate used by Catholic Charities

Our Lady Queen of Angels, a California nonprofit religious corporation is inactive except for record ownership of some real estate related to the former archdiocesan minor seminary which is now used by Bishop Alemany High School or leased to third parties