1. The overriding mission of the School is to develop and maintain a Roman Catholic School Faith Community by offering a quality education that meets the needs of its students and applicable educational standards. The School environment is intended to reflect the doctrines, laws, norms and values of the Roman Catholic Church and a philosophy of education which fosters Catholic values for the entire School community. A fuller description of the philosophy for Archdiocesan schools is provided in Chapter IV of the Administrative Handbook which is available online. All your duties and responsibilities shall be performed within this overriding commitment.

2. You acknowledge and agree that the School retains the right to operate within the philosophy of Catholic education and to retain administrators who demonstrate an ability to develop and maintain a Catholic School Faith Community. Accordingly, you are expected to model, teach, and promote behavior in conformity with the teaching of the Roman Catholic Church.

3. While all faculty and staff are expected to model, teach and promote behavior in conformity to Christian living, you in particular serve as a model, teacher and promoter of Roman Catholic teaching. You recognize that the School is an apostolic ministry of the Roman Catholic Church and that your role in such a ministry is to offer a positive example and support to the students and the community. You agree to further your professional growth and faith formation by continuing to study and to aid in the Christian formation of the School’s students, faculty and staff by exemplifying Christian characteristics in your own actions.

BENEFITS

10. You are eligible for health, disability, retirement and other insurance benefits as described in the Archdiocesan Benefits Guide, which will be provided to you from time to time. You are insured under a liability insurance policy while acting within the scope of your duties as an employee. This

The designated holidays include Christmas and Easter break. You shall schedule your summer vacation at such times as the School is not in session. Under rare circumstances you may request permission to take unused summer vacation days (no more than one or two days at a time) while school is in session. If you do not wish to be considered for employment by the School for the following year, you will so notify the DCS (or the Pastor of a Parish High School) in writing on or before April 1.
